Truce On Party Politics Sought In War Interest

O'Mahoney Pleads For U. S. Unity

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) today demanded "a truce on partisan politics" in dealing with home front mobilization. He did so after two Republican lawmakers assailed the Truman administration's handling of the program.

"I think this is a very poor time for anyone—Democrats or Republicans—to challenge the motives of those who are called upon to make the extremely difficult decisions required," O'Mahoney declared.

"This of all times is a time for a truce on partisan politics, for partisan attacks are wholly uncalled for and only serve to weaken us."

O'Mahoney was replying to weekend attacks on the administration by Senators Aiken (R-Vt.) and Martin (R-Pa.)

Aiken predicted easy Senate passage late this week of a House-approved bill which would set up authority for wage-price-rationing curbs, but he said President Truman declined "for political reasons" to ask Congress for those controls.

Mr. Truman did ask for immediate power to allocate materials, set up priorities and curb credit. The bill which the House passed and which appears to face smooth sailing in the Senate would also give him authority, for use when he saw fit, to control prices and wages and impose rationing.

"Playing Politics"

Aiken contended that Mr. Truman has his eyes on the November elections and has been "negligent in leaving the American

Leaders Await War Estimates

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congressional leaders hope to get more definite estimates soon on how many billions of dollars will be needed to meet costs of the Korean battle and related defense programs.

Leaders of both major parties concede that they do not know just what President Truman and his cabinet leaders will ask of Congress in the next few weeks or months.

To date, the President has asked about $16,500,000,000 of additional defense funds since the Communist invasion of Southern Korea.

That was on top of earlier defense spending requests of about $14,500,000,000 already tentatively approved by the Senate and House in the one-package appropriation bill.

Senator Connally (D-Tex) expects to get some new cost data this week when his Senate Foreign Relations committee hears secret testimony by Secretary of Defense Johnson.

Chairman Connally said his group wants to review all defense plans at home and abroad in connection with the request for $4,000,000,000 to speed the rearming of western Europe and other anti-Communist nations.

"After all, the military picture has a direct bearing on foreign relations now," Connally said.

Congress previously voted $1,222,500,000 this year toward rearming anti-Communist nations.

Some senators say that the additional defense requests will boost the total for the current fiscal year, which ends next June 30, to $45,000,000,000.

Huge Crowd At Necedah Awaits Miracle Tuesday

NECEDAH, Wis. — (AP) — This tiny community was beginning to fill up today with people from many states who hoped to see a miracle Tuesday.

Their hopes centered on a grove of trees on a farm near here where Mrs. Anna Van Hoof, 40-year-old mother of seven children, said she would have her seventh vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Despite efforts by Roman Catholic dignitaries to discourage a large turnout, between 50,000 and 100,000 persons were expected to jam the Van Hoof farm grounds at the appointed time—high noon Tuesday.

Early arrivals were being accommodated in rooming houses and private homes here and in surrounding villages. Henry Swan, president of the Necedah Chamber of Commerce, was head of a special arrangements committee.

The real flood of devout and curious was anticipated Tuesday, when special trains and busses were scheduled to leave on one-day excursions from Milwaukee and Chicago.

The Milwaukee Road, however, cancelled its special trains after a pronouncement from Bishop John P. Treacy of the La Crosse diocese of the Roman Catholic church. He banned special religious services at Necedah Tuesday—the Catholic holiday of the assumption of the Virgin Mary—and also termed Mrs. Van Hoof's claims as being of "an extremely questionable nature."

The farm woman says her first visit from the Mother of Christ came last November and that since then there have been five such visits in the grove.

Ford Workers Will Ask Raise

DETROIT — (AP)—Under threat of future strike action, the Ford Motor company today studied a request from the CIO United Auto Workeres that the present contract be reopened and wages hiked immediately.

The UAW represents 115,000 Ford production workers across the nation.

Unless the demands are met, the general council of Ford's 60,000-member UAW Local 600 of Detroit approved strike action for Jan. 2, 1951. The present contract expires Jan. 1.

The contract now in force bars any review of wages before the expiration date. But Ben Bannon, UAW Ford director, declared the contract provides for a reopening on wages if both parties agree.

The union contends that "the spiraling cost of living" justifies a wage increase at this time.

Bannon said wage increases this year by competitors—General Motors and Chrysler—"have resulted in inequities in the rates paid to Ford workers and workers in other plants on comparable classifications of work."

Local 600 first demanded a wage review 10 days ago. The company rejected the request, pointing out that the contract did not permit a reopening and that the contract was on a nation-wide basis for its production workers.

The second UAW demand, in behalf of all of Ford's production workers, followed.

Rotterdam Dock Workers Strike

ROTTERDAM, The Netherlands —(AP)—More than half of Rotterdam's 10,000 dockers struck today for higher wages. The strikers demand a 10 per cent increase in their average wages of 50 to 55 guilders ($14 to $14.70) weekly. Employers say government regulations forbid the increase.

Legislature Is Confronted By War Problems

Special Session Convenes Tuesday

LANSING — (AP) — Michigan's chronically recessing legislature returns Tuesday to find a heavy agenda topped with a request for money which may total $2,000,000 for the state's war preparations.

Expected to be before the lawmakers also was a proposed constitutional amendment setting up subversion as a crime, a suggested liberalization of the election laws for servicemen, and new state laws to conform with new Federal Social Security laws and to increase the social welfare budget.

In view of a cool reception by veterans groups, an administration proposal to extend the veterans' bonus to Korean fighters may not appear this time.

Governor Williams has indicated his request for war preparedness money would be "close to" the amounts discussed last Friday by the civil defense council.

Living Blood Bank"

That group voted to recommend $392,740 to enlarge the state police by 180 men, $83,970 to set up a 12-man state policy security squad, $100,000 to create a central

Sex Slaying Of Child Is Solved

CHICAGO — (AP) — The sex slaying 19 months ago of 10-year-old Roberta Rinearson has been marked "solved."

State's Attorney John S. Boyle said last night that a 36-year-old father of three had re-enacted the kidnaping and slaying on a lonely country road near suburban LaGrange the night of Dec. 17, 1948.

Boyle said a man, George Lettrich, Jr., admitted the crime during a lie detector examination early Sunday morning in which he also was questioned about two other sex offenses against young girls.

In signed statement, Boyle said Lettrich gave this account of the crime:

He enticed Roberta into his car in front of a LaGrange theater then drove out on the country road where he made sex advances toward her. She fought him, kicking and screaming as he ripped her clothing off.

To stifle her cries, Lettrich stuffed the girl's panties in her mouth and took indecent liberties, but he denied that he raped her.

Lettrich's statement said he had his forearm across Roberta's chest and that "it must have slipped up and crushed her throat."

It added: "After I got back in the car she dragged herself to her hands and knees and looked like she was trying to get up. The pants still were in her mouth. She tried to sit up, but rolled over on her stomach and all fours."

Lettrich said he spent the rest of the night driving around aimlessly and returned home about 6 a. m. and slept.

Roberta's body was found a few hours later. Physicians said she had been raped.

Lettrich, divorced by his wife since the crime, is an unemployed punch press operator. He was picked up by police for questioning about the complaint of two girls who said they had been forced by a man to undress in a forest preserve, and that he took indecent liberties with them.

Problems Of The Aged Subject Of Conference

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON —(AP)— About 800 people from around the country are meeting here to exchange information and ideas and to make suggestions about the problems of the aged and aging.

Called a "conference on aging," it is the first national meeting of its kind ever held. Significantly, it is described as an "exploratory conference."

Which means those at the meeting will discuss what can or ought to be done about the problem of aging. Whether this results in some single, outstanding step remains to be seen.

For example: Long ago Congress recognized that there should be some single government agency concerned with the problems of children. So the children's bureau was created.

Maybe in time—as an outgrowth of this conference or because of later events—the government will set up a bureau to act as a central source for advice and information on aging problems.

Or, maybe this conference will suggest creation of some non-governmental agency to serve the same purpose. At this time no such central source exists.

Because this is so, work and thinking in the field—and there have been a lot of both—are scattered and unorganized. For example:

All 48 states do some work with or for the aged. Suppose you wanted to find out what all were doing. Could you get the information by writing to some central agency in each state? No.

Men familiar with this field say there are no more than eight states which have information on their programs and work on the aged organized under one roof.

This conference was called by the Federal Security agency—which handles Social Security, old age pensions and help for the needy poor—after President Truman suggested it explore the aging problems.

Today there are about 11,500,000 persons aged 65 or over. This group, according to the census bureau, will increase to 15,000,000 by 1960 and to 20,000,000 by 1974. And—

It is estimated that 3,500,000 of the 11,500,000 now 65 or over have no money income of their own; and of the remaining 8,000,000 with some income, almost one-third have less than $500.

Americans Open Big Attack, Advance Along 6-Mile Front

By RELMAN MORIN

TOKYO — (AP) — U. S. troops smashed up the muddy Changnyong slopes Monday for a mile gain against 12,000 Korean Reds strung along the Allied eastern bank of the Naktong river 23 miles south of Taegu.

Massed along the western banks of of the river 32 miles northward were 60,000 Communist troops. They were ready to jump off against thin-spread Allied forces dug in on the east bank.

The Reds had 15 divisions—150,000 men—on the entire Korean front, intelligence officers at General MacArthur's headquarters said. This greatly outnumbers anything the Allies can put in the field.

The American counter-attack at Changnyong started at dawn in a rainstorm. Forty-five-ton Pershing tanks spearheaded it. Behind the lumbering war machines slogged troops of the U. S. 24th infantry division. Warplanes joined the battle with bombs and rockets when the weather cleared.

Met By Hail Of Fire

The attacking Americans were met by a hail of fire from high velocity weapons. The Reds in the heights outnumbered the Americans. The enemy has been trying to break out of a six-mile bulge aroung Changnyong for eight days. The original North Korean Fourth infantry division that crossed the winding river there has been reinforced.

Early Monday night U. S. Eighth army headquarters in Korea said the attacking Americans at Changnyong had attained their primary objectives. General MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo said the attack was "proceeding satisfactorily."

American army and navy planes and the royal Australian air force poured a crushing weight of bombs and rockets on the Red invaders.

But for all its ferocity, the Changnyong fighting was described by a general officer at MacArthur's headquarters as probably secondary to the "critical area" which extends 20 miles north and south of the town of Waegwan, 32 miles north of Changnyong.

The Reds have put four elite divisions on the Waegwan line just 12 air miles northwest of Taegau, the South Korean republic's emergency capital. Two other North Korean divisions were behind them with armor to exploit the break through the Reds expect to make against the U. S. First cavalry division and South Korean forces.

Intelligence officers said the Red steamroller is expected to strike out momentarily from the Waegwan area for Taegu.

Both the Changnyong river crossing, to the south, and the attack of Pohang, No. 2 Korean port on the east coast, were designed to immobilize as much American and South Korean strength as possible, intelligence officers said.

3300 Reds Wiped Out

The Waegwan central front Reds keep throwing out probing arms, hunting for weak spots in the long line.

The U. S. First cavalry caught 500 Communists crossing the Naktong near Waegwan early Monday. The First cavalry killed or wounded 300 or them and most of the remainder fled back across the river. Some Reds took refuge in the hills and cavalry patrols were hunting them.

A general staff officer said the situation north and west of Pohong, the Korea east coast port, was "generally satisfactory." He said the North Koreans at Pohang had been successful in forcing U. S. and South Korean troops to fight "a holding action." They also prevented the American air force from using the new and important fighter plane field six miles south of Pohank at Yongil.

Koreans Offered Surrender Terms

TOKYO — (AP) — Safe conduct passes designed to encourage North Korean soldiers to surrender will be scattered over concentrations of enemy troops, General MacArthur's psychological warfare branch said today.

The leaflets are printed in eye-catching black and red. They are in both English and Korean. The United Nations emblem is printed boldly at the top of both sides of the passes.

The leaflet instructs all United Nations soldiers to guarantee humane treatment to a possessor of such passes and to "treat him as an honorable prisoner of war."

Army Of West Europe Planned

By PHILIP CLARKE

STRASBOURG, France —(AP)— Political leaders of Western Europe today began drafting a plan for a unified European army.

Spurred by Winston Churchill's warning that there is "not a day to lose," the European council's consultative assembly sped action on the British leader's dramatic proposal to pool Western Europe's soldiery.

The assembly sub-committee on security scheduled afternoon and evening meetings to map a master plan for consideration by the individual West European governments. The council's recommendations are not binding on member governments.

The security group, composed of some 15 of the assembly's 125 members, had little concrete with which to begin. Churchill's proposal adopted by the assembly last Friday, called only for the "immediate creation of a unified European army under the authority of a European minister of defense, subject to proper European democratic control and acting in full cooperation with the United States and Canada."

Leon Maccas, Greek minister of marine, said he would propose immediate direct consultations between the security group and the European governments.

He said this would save valuable time in drafting a plan suitable to the various governments. Presumably the assemblymen would have the advice of defense experts from the governments.

Maccas said there still was a strong sentiment in favor of naming Churchill European defense minister despite the wartime British Prime Minister's statement that he was not a candidate.

Two Men Injured In Plane Crash

ISHPEMING, Mich. — A crash landing near the Blueberry Iron Mine west of here last night caused the injury of two Marquette county men.

The two, Lyle F. Ogea, 23 and John Snow, 45, were hurt when their plane developed engine trouble and they crashed into trees.

The condition of Snow was reported critical by Ishpeming hospital authorities. He is suffering from a fractured jaw and possible fractured neck, lacerations of the body and face, and shock. Ogea also suffered shock and lacerations in the crash.

WAR CRIMINALS PAROLED

TOKYO—(AP) — General MacArthur's legal section today approved the parole of five more Japanese war criminals. This brought the total paroled to 75.

Hope Dwindles For Reynolds

LONE PINE, Calif. — (AP)—In a last-hope search for tobacco heir Christopher Smith Reynolds, mountain-wise climbers plan today to scale the forbidding east face of the nation's highest peak, Mount Whitney.

The frozen body of his companion, Stephen Rice Wasserman, was found in a snowy crevasse at the 11,500-foot level yesterday, a week after the two 17-year-old eastern scions had set out to conquer Whitney's toughest side.

Scant hope was held by veteran searchers that young Reynolds is still alive, unless he wandered off for aid for Wasserman. Today's search will be concentrated on higher crevasses of the 14,496-foot peak.

Young Reynolds' mother, former Torchsinger Libby Holman, was ready to fly from Paris. The boy, heir to a $7,000,000 fortune, was born to Miss Holman shortly after her husband, Zachary Reynolds, was mysteriously slain.

Wasserman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stix Wasserman of Philadelphia and New ork, were at nearby Whitney portal when the body of their son was identified. The father, a millionaire broker and economist, had spent most of the day flying over the area.

A-Bombs More Potent Now Than 5 Years Ago

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Use of radioactive materials to make enemy territory uninhabitable offers intriguing military possibilities, but the government says the only practical way of waging nuclear war at present is with atomic bombs.

A new hint that a-bombs now in production are much more effective than those which the United States dropped on Japan came last night from Senator McMahon (D-Conn), chairman of the congressional committee on atomic energy.

McMahon made a cryptic reference, on an NBC television show, to "nominal atomic bombs of the old-fashioned Hiroshima and Nagasaki type."

He did not elaborate, but use of the word "nominal"—which he emphasized—added another bit to the growing evidence that a-bombs used in World War II have been far surpassed in destructiveness.

The first comprehensive official discussion of the untried art of "radiological warfare" — the technique of killing or sickening persons by poisonous nuclear fission products—is contained in a government book published over the weekend.

It is "the effect of atomic weapons," issued by the atomic energy commission. While the book was prepared primarily to advise civilian defense agencies and the public about conditions to be expected under atomic attack, it also presented a report on present or possible future uses of various types of atomic weapons.

The book covers both the advantages and handicaps of radiological warfare, commonly called "RW," and leaves some doubt about how practicable the weapon might be at its present stage of development.

It says an advantage of the "RW" weapon is its compactness—two pounds of one material could cause "serious harm" if spread uniformly over a limited area. But the problem would be to spread it uniformly.

One of its biggest potentialities is psychological; it can't be seen or smelled, thus becomes a "mystery weapon" to frighten populations with the fear of unseen death.

National Guard In Encampment

CAMP GRAYLING, Mich.—(AP)—Michigan's National Guard unlimbered its field pieces and rifles today, after a warning to look for the Korean war to last through next spring.

The warning was given officers by Col. S. L. A. Marshall, military analyst for the Detroit News and chief historian in the European theatre during World War II.

Col. Marshall addressed the officers yesterday as more than 8,000 guardsmen completed setting up the camp in which they will train intensively for the next two weeks. Units began arriving Saturday. All were here today.

Maj. Gen Ralph A. Loveland, commanding officer of the Michigan National Guard, said he believed the 46th infantry division would be inducted into federal service. Army officials in Washington said last week no more Nation Guard divisions would be called into federal service unless the Korean situation grows worse.

Loveland told officers the 1950 encampment is "the most significant" since the 46th division was organized four years ago.

"We are training the youth of Michigan for possible duty on the battlefield, and we should go about the job with honesty and candor," Loveland told the assembled officers and senior non-commissioned officers.

"The Korean war," Col. Marshall declared, "is going to wear on through the winter and through the spring. To carry on a campaign for re-liberation and again make Korea safe for democracy, we will probaby need six to eight divisions above what we have fighting there now."

He said in his opinion the 46th division "would already have been called to federal service if its readiness were the only factor to be considered."

The 46th, he said, "already stands as high as any in the nation despite its newness."

Salaries Chief Item In Escanaba School Costs

Salaries of teachers, custodians, clerks and other employes of the Escanaba schools in 1949-50 equaled 80.7 per cent of expenditures, chief item in a total of $533,751.87 to operate the schools last year.

This and other information was presented to the Escanaba board of education at its recent meeting by Supt. John A. Lemmer in an annual financial and statistical report.

Salaries Total $430,985.77

The salary total for the year 1949-50 was $430,985.77, compared to expenditures of $533,751.87. The latter figure does not include debt service payments of $28,770 toward retirement of the bonded indebtedness on the Junior High school building.

Of the total $771,740 in bonded debt incurred in 1932, the school district has paid off $545,032, leaving a remainder of $226,708 to be retired by April 1, 1958.

Now in the process of planning for the construction of a new Senior high school building, the board of education was told by the superintendent that a balance of $88,486.58 is in the building program fund. This money was from the Catherine Bonifas estate plus interest on government bonds and on savings account.

New Stadium Fund

It was reported that $55,648.47 cash balance remains in the construction fund for the new stadium at the athletic field, after an initial payment in June of $7,000.

Changing chief sources of revenue to the school district was told graphically in the report, with comparisons for 1929-30 and 1949-50. State and federal aid has increased from $80,000 to $380,000; and local operating taxes have declined from $145,000 to $86,000 and the tax rate from 16.8 to 7 mills. Meanwhile valuations in the school district have increased from $8½ million to $12½ million.

MSC Students To Visit Here

20 From Far East Coming To Delta

Twenty graduate students of Michigan State College, East Lansing, all from the Far East, will spend three days in Delta county early next month in their continuing "adventure in world understanding."

Delta county will be host to the exchange students on Sept. 7, 8 and 9, according to J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, who with a local committee met with MSC representatives who are arranging the Upper Peninsula tour for the students.

The students are assisting in the financing of the trip but will be guests in Delta county homes. They are residents of Pakistan, India, Siam, Korea, Greece and Palestine, and seek greater insight into American life.

Better Understanding

They want to learn more of the customs, community activities, and home life in America. Michigan State College faculty agreed that a tour of Michigan, with stops in several counties, would bring the better understanding the students sought.

Preliminary arrangements for the stay in Delta county was made at a recent meeting attended by Mrs. Louise Carpenter, of the continuing education service of MSC, and a local group including Heirman, George Ruwitch of Escanaba high school, Wallace Cameron of Gladstone schools, Walter Peters of R[illegible]d River schools, George Weingartner of the Rock school, and Hagle Quarnstrom, Delta county school superintendent.

Plan Program

Each of the school officials will arrange a program for the students in their communities in the county. Special school assembly programs may be scheduled with the students as speakers.

The students will stay in private homes in the county, giving them the opportunity they seek in meeting and better knowing American home life. The program for the students on their visit to Delta county will be completed before the students arrive.

They will reach here on Sept. 7 and the next two days will be devoted to special trips and programs for the students in the communities where they will stay. The students will be in Dickinson county and Marquette county later in their tour of the Upper Peninsula.

THRILL DRIVER—Bobo Canup, of Salisbury, N. C., is one of the featured drivers with the Joie Chitwood Thrill Drivers who will perform at the Upper Peninsula State Fair Tuesday afternoon and evening. Canup has doubled for many movie stars in dangerous automobile stunts. He will make the ramp to ramp jump, one of the most difficult and most daring feats in the thrill business.

State To Open M-35 Job Bids

Perkins To Trombly Will Be Improved

The state highway department on Tuesday will open proposals for the improvement of more than six miles of M-35 between Perkins and Trombly in Delta county, it was announced today by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

Bids will be opened in the Upper Peninsula branch office in Escanaba and the low bid determined. The contract will be awarded from the Lansing office of the highway department.

The project for improving M-35 includes:

6.231 miles of grade and drainage structures and gravel surface course from Perkins west and northwest to Trombly. The work is to be completed by July 1, 1951.

Relocation of the highway will eliminate several dangerous curves and two railroad crossings.

Fine Paintings Will Be Shown At State Fair

Thirty-six reproductions of famous paintings from the University of Michigan's loan collection will be on exhibit at the Upper Peninsula Fair in Escanaba, Aug. 15 to 20.

The reproductions are regularly available on loan through the University's Audio-Visual Center as part of a project to encourage interest in art in the rural schools of the state.

Michael Church, supervisor of the Saginaw area office of the Extension Service, will judge the entries in the annual watercolor and oil paintings exhibit at the fair.

Dr. Weaver To Address U. P. Dairymen At Fair

DR. EARL WEAVER

Dairy farmers of the Upper Peninsula will hold their annual banquet meeting Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the 4-H club dining hall at the U. P. State Fair, with Dr. Earl Weaver, head of Michigan State College dairy department, as the principal speaker.

Also scheduled to speak is Joseph Jensen, specialist in dairy manufacturing, of MSC dairy department.

Gail Bowers, Menominee county agricultural agent, will be toastmaster.

Special invitations to attend the banquet have been issued to dairymen of all of the U. P. counties who have the highest averages in their Dairy Herd Improvement Associations; and to farmers who have made the greatest improvements in butterfat production under the DHIA program.

These dairy farmers will be presented and receive special recognition.

This year the outstanding "green pasture" farmer of the Upper Peninsula will be presented with a trophy sponsored by the U. P. State Fair board at the conclusion of the first annual U. P. Green Pastures contest. The contest is designed to encourage better pasture management, important to the success of the dairy program.

Each county will enter a dairy farmer contestant in the "green pastures" competition. The name of the Delta county contestant will be announced Tuesday night, according to J. L. Heirman, county agent.

The banquet and program is open to all interested dairymen of the Upper Peninsula. Reservations are to be made with William Lutz, dairy specialist, who will be at the fair grounds.

U. P. State Fair Opens Tuesday, Escanaba Welcomes Its Patrons

THE Upper Peninsula State Fair, "Show Window of the Upper Peninsula," will open in Escanaba tomorrow at the state fairgrounds and will continue for six thrilling days. This will be the 17th annual exposition and it promises to be the best from many standpoints.

During the six days, thousands of residents of all sections of the Upper Peninsula, northern Wisconsin and visitors from many other areas will be in Escanaba for this great exposition. The Escanaba Daily Press joins with the residents of this city in extending to them a warm welcome and our best wishes for an enjoyable time.

The fair offers the biggest bargain in entertainment and education to be found anywhere in the north. The shows that will be presented at the grandstand during the next six days comprise the best in entertainment talent in this country. The exhibits in all departments will provide an excellent opportunity to learn the achievements of our people in agriculture, art, home economics, home living, business and industry. There will be much of interest to every patron of the fair.

The exposition is so broad in scope that it will hardly be possible to absorb all of it in a single visit. Plan to visit the fair several times during this week.

The Upper Peninsula State Fair, as its name implies, is the official exposition of all the people of this great vacationland, the great Upper Peninsula of Michigan. We are proud of our achievements and proud of the U. P. State Fair which serves so effectively to display our progress.

Escanaba is indeed happy to be the host city for this outstanding exposition, and is pleased to extend a warm welcome to every patron.

UMT Is Before Congress Again

ADVOCATES of universal military training are taking advantage of the national interest in war preparedness developed by the Korean fighting to press for enactment of UMT. President Truman has long been an adherent of universal training but Congress has traditionally been opposed.

UMT should not be confused with the selective service program. Selective service is designed solely to meet the nation's current military manpower requirements. Universal military training approaches the military problem from a different viewpoint. It provides for the training of all young men in peacetime as well as in periods of war emergencies. The theory of UMT is that the nation will always have a pool of men at least partially trained for national defense.

Opposition to UMT is predicated upon two basic factors. One is the tremendous cost of such a program and recognition that much of this money needed for the program would be wasted. The other is the traditional objection of the American people to peacetime conscription.

The administration has estimated the annual cost of UMT at about two billion dollars. Other military experts regard this estimate as too low and believe that the actual cost would be considerably greater. In any case, the long range value of UMT is questionable. New military weapons and new military techniques are being constantly developed. A young man trained in today's methods of warfare would have to start all over again if called for army service a half dozen years from now.

It is not likely that Congress will devote much time to the UMT proposal—and certainly not in advance of the fall elections.

More Men Turning To Elementary Teaching

IN signing three men teachers for assignment in the city grade schools, the Escanaba board of education has approved a new trend in elementary teaching. The action, we believe, will be generously welcomed in the community.

The use of male teachers in elementary grades is new in Escanaba, but it has been successful in township schools for years. The trend to male teachers in elementary schools throughout the country undoubtedly will increase because opportunities for teachers in high schools are limited. There are more teachers seeking assignment to high schools than there are job opportunities but openings in elementary grades are almost unlimited. There still is a serious shortage of elementary teachers.

As a result of this situation more and more men are recognizing the advisability of teacher training for elementary classes and are no wturning to this field. The trend is a good one.

G. I.'s In Korea Aren't Playing Beanbag

SENATOR WHERRY, Republican floor leader, thinks Congress may be breaking the law by sticking around Washington these days.

He notes that the Congressional Reorganization Act states that the House and Senate must adjourn by July 31 each year, except in case of war, national emergency or special provision by Congress to keep going.

We don't think it'll take a new law to give the aura of legality to the present proceedings on Capitol Hill. Admittedly Congress hasn't declared war. But very likely the boys who are fighting and dying in Korea will accept "national emergency" as a reasonable substitute of what they're going through.

HE STILL WANTS MORE
(Grand Rapids Press)

Gov. Williams has declared flatly that the threat of higher federal corporation taxes will not deter him from demanding again that the legislature levy a state corporation tax.

The governor argues that an increase in federal corporation taxes wouldn't help the state any—which may be true enough. But it is even more certain that a state corporation tax piled on a federal increase would hit Michigan industry severely.

A Republican candidate for governor, Fred M. Alger, Jr., says he knows of one small company that would be forced out of business if a new state tax were imposed on it. Its business, Alger contends, would go to one of the firms in other states with which it is in keen competition. Doubtless there are other small industries—and possibly even some larger ones—whose competitive position also would be seriously jeopardized by a state corporation tax.

Should any number of concerns be forced to close their doors for this reason, Michigan might ultimately find a corporation tax a losing proposition. And if such a tax should discourage new industry from locating in this state, that almost certainly would be the effect.

President Truman has called on the nation to make certain sacrifices in the present critical period. Many of its citizens are making grave sacrifices. Would it be asking too much of Williams to demand that he lay aside his grandoise spending - taxing schemes in favor of an all-out program to cut state costs and thus make somewhat more bearable the material sacrifices required by the present emergency?

IF THE TVA HADN'T. . .
(St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

Frank W. Wilkes, president of Southwestern Gas & Electric Co. of Shreveport, La., regaled a convention of the Edison Electric institute with some figures which showed, he said, that TVA could make two or three times as much money if it only raised power rates to reflect what the power would cost if there weren't any navigation and flood control benefits, and to reflect taxes that would be paid if TVA weren't a public agency.

Mr. Wilkes ought to carry his researches further. He should find out how much power would not be consumed in the Tennessee valley if rates were higher, and how many new industries would not have been established in the region at these rates, and how much regional income would not have been generated, and to what extent the region's contribution to the war effort and to postwar production records would have been diminished if TVA hadn't supplied an abundance of cheap power.

A COMMENT ON FRANKED 'JUNK'
(Hartford Times-Press)

It has long been our feeling that if the franking privilege were to be completely removed much good would come of it. The mails have been loaded of late with nonpaying mail from Senator McCarthy, Senator Wiley and others with axes to grind. If these gentlemen had to pay postage for the junk they send out perhaps our wastebasket would not fill up so fast, the mails might not be so loaded, and some additional income might be realized.

Merry-Go-Round

By JACK ANDERSON AND FRED BLUMENTHAL

WASHINGTON—The American embassy reports from Moscow that the Kremlin is delighted with the U. S. Senate's recent decision to loan Dictator Franco $100,000,000.

In fact, the Russians are already planning to use this as a new tool for anti-American propaganda. The Reds have a long list of quotes from Franco's own lips, more poisonous than anything they could invent. Here are a few Franco quotes that the Communists will be flinging in our faces:

1937—(To Hitler) "Fervent wishes as the great German people advance under the glorious emblem of the swastika. Heil Hitler."

PRIVATE ADMISSION

Though President Truman was plenty miffed when the Senate rejected four major nominations last week — the worst setback Congress has handed him this session—he admitted privately that he might have voted the same way.

Truman made the concession at a "big four" meeting with congressional chiefs, at which he was urged to withdraw the four nominations. These include Martin Hutchinson of Virginia for the federal trade commission and Carroll Switzer for the southern Iowa federal court.

"You will suffer an embarrassing defeat if you go through with this," warned Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas of Illinois. "There isn't the slightest chance of the Senate confirming any of the four nominations. I strongly suggest that you withdraw them."

Lucas pointed out it was useless to buck the long-standing Senate "tradition" of never approving a nominee who is objectionable to a senator from the same state. Hutchinson was opposed by Virginia's Sen. Harry Byrd, while Sen. Guy Gillette of Iowa objected to Switzer.

"I'm sorry I can't accept your recommendation, Scott," replied Truman. "But I made those nominations and I intend to stand back of them—all of them. They are good men, well qualified for the positions to which I have named them."

"That may be true, but you'll never get them through the Senate," countered Lucas. The Illinoisan then reminded the president that he (Truman) had voted against Judge Floyd Roberts of Virginia in a similar case when he was a member of the Senate in 1939. Roberts also was opposed by Byrd.

"Yes, I remember that," retorted Truman, without batting an eye. "And if I were in the Senate now I would do the same thing."

Note—The other two Truman appointees, turned down by the Senate, were Neil Andrews for northern Georgia federal judge and Frank Hook of Michigan for the motor carrier claims commission.

All patriotic Americans are disgusted with the greedy hoarders and profiteers who read the headlines about American boys dying in Korea, then rush to the stores to stock up on scarce goods or push up prices to cash in on the crisis.

As our part to combat this un-Amer-urge decent Americans in every community to organize "home front" committees to campaign against local hoarders, profiteers and rent gougars.

Any people who think more of their comfort than of their freedom will lose both.

CAPITAL CHAFF

A rookie capitol cop, eying a "suspicious" character browsing through newspapers in the House lounge, gruffly inquired: "Are you a member?" "Yes, for about 26 years," grinned his quarry, GOP Minority Leader Joe Martin of Massachusetts. . . House public works committeemen may literally be addressing the "chair" (with no one in it) when the next Congress convenes. Chairman William Whittington of Mississippi, who is retiring from Congress, will be succeeded by New York Democrat Charles Buckley, tabbed the "Phantom Congressman" by Drew Pearson, because he seldom shows up in Washington. (That's providing the Dems retain control in November).

NEW WORDS TO LEARN

Here are a few of the many new words and terms that have recently entered American English, and that are not as yet to be found in the average dictionary.

Astra Dome, a trade-name of the General Motors "Train of Tomorrow." The Astra Dome is the glassed-in observation deck in the roofs of the coaches.

Momism is a word coined by Philip Wylie to describe excessive "mothering," especially among sons.

Big Eye is the nickname of the Hale telescope at Mt. Palomar, Calif., so called because of its 200-inch lens.

Phonogenic is a word coined in imitation of photogenic. Phonogenic is an adjective describing a pleasing voice, especially one well suited for broadcasting or recording. Say: FOE-nuh-JEN'ik.

Topectomy is a newly developed operation for the relief of mental illness. Certain portions of the brain tissue are removed surgically. Say: tuh-PECK-tuh-mee. Topectomy is formed from the Greek topos, "place," plus ektome, "cutting out or off."

ACTH is the abbreviation for adrenocorticotropic hormone, secreted by the pituitary gland, regarded as a possible cure for arthritis. Since ACTH is written without periods, it becomes a sort of word, rather than an abbreviation. Pronounce it akth, as a person with a lisp would say the word "acts."

What And What Not To Expect If Caught In An A-Bomb Explosion

SHOCK FRONT
BALL OF FIRE
MACH FRONT
DIRT CLOUD

BLINDING LIGHT, HOT AS THE SUN: Illustration from the AEC's new atomic weapons Handbook shows ball of fire touching ground soon after "breakaway" in "Trinity" A-bomb test at Alamogordo, N.M. Shock front, "Mach front" due to shock wave reflection, and dirt cloud are indicated.

By WADE JONES
NEA Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Blinding light from a ball of fire hot as the sun and a hundred times brighter to look at probably would be the first warning that a surprise-attack atom bomb had hit your town.

If it were the size dropped over Japan and exploded at about the same height from the ground, you very possibly would never know what hit you if you were within a half mile of it. But even in the half-mile radius there would be some survivors.

The maximum distance for property damage would be about five miles and even at three miles an individual would be relatively safe. In a slit trench in your back yard you would be virtually out of danger as close as 4500 feet, or just under a mile.

Burns from the explosion flash and those from the ordinary fires following an explosion would account for more than 50 per cent of deaths, if the pattern at Hiroshima and Nagasaki held true. Radiation would cause a maximum of only 15 per cent of the deaths. The remainder would result principally from direct and indirect forces of the explosion's blast effect.

You can rest easier now. From here on there's better news. It's told by the Atomic Energy Commission in an official new book titled "The Effects of Atomic Weapons." And it does a good job of laying the ghost of once-dreaded radiation.

A military spokesman commenting on the radiation aspects of The Bomb tossed a small one himself by stating it would be "probably very safe" to go into the heart of the bomb area within 10 seconds after the blast, 90 seconds at most. He was speaking of a bomb exploded above the earth, as in Japan.

An atomic energy spokesman went even further in saying that from an air burst there would be no radiological contamination.

The book says on this point: "After an air burst at low altitude an area—small compared with the damage are due to the bomb—near the explosion center would be uninhabitable because of the radiation hazard." It goes on to say that a vehicle traveling fairly fast could cross the contaminated area about 15 minutes after the explosion.

It would be safe to walk across are area after six hours. Rescue and first-aid workers, properly clothed and shielded, probably could work there with only infrequent interruption. It would probably be some time, however, before unprotected persons could remain for more than a few hours at a time.

Gamma rays and neutrons are the bugaboos of radiation. About 50 per cent of human beings exposed to gamma rays as far as 4200 feet from the explosion would die from radiation sickness. But at 9000 feet, or just under two miles, there would be no danger. The deadly effects of neutrons would not range beyond a half mile.

It is largely because of the gamma ray and neutron ranges that the area between a half mile and a mile is the critical borderline where anything can happen. It will take less than a second for a lethal dose to reach you in that zone, but it's possible to save your life by taking cover fast enough after you see the initial bomb flash.

Also discounted by "The Effects of Atomic Weapons" is the old prediction that the long-time effects of radiation would produce a race of monsters. Such a thing "is extremely improbable," say the experts.

It was once thought that nuclear radiations were responsible for leaving many burn victims in Japan with disfiguring overgrowths of scar tissue called keloids. The book says no. It is now known that the disfigurations were caused by secondary infections in the burns and by malnutrition. In addition, the tendency toward keloid formations is a racial characteristic of the Japanese.

The burn infections resulted largely from a lack of medical facilities and supplies. As a result the agonized victims used whatever they could lay their hands on—from mud to molasses—as a balm. The result was infection. A medical relief program that will stand up under atomic attack can do a great deal to reduce the unnecessary burn infection and consequent disfigurement.

A plan of action for the first second after an atom bomb explodes near you could save your life.

A blinding light will signal the explosion. But don't look toward it. It could destroy your sight, if only for a few hours or days.

If you are in the open, drop to the ground. Curl up and try to shield the exposed parts of your body such as hands, neck and face. Lie with your back to the blast, pull your coat collar up around your neck, and fold your hands over your stomach. All this will help reduce flash burns and injury from the blast.

Stay in your curled-up position for at least 10 seconds. By then the immediate danger is over and it's safe to stand up.

If you are outside and within a step or two of some protection such as a doorway, a tree or the corner of a building, get behind it quick. If the shelter is more than a few steps away don't try to make it. Just drop and curl up as described above, facing away from the bright light.

After 10 seconds, stand up and try to get under something which will give protection from flying glass and falling objects.

If you are at home or in your office, drop to the floor, back to windows. Better yet, get under a table, desk or counter. The safest places inside a building are alongside interior partitions.

The most destructive and deadly forces of an atomic explosion are flash burn, blast effect and nuclear radiation. The latter is caused by gamma rays and neutrons.

Direct blast injuries are caused by the shock wave of air injuring the lungs, stomach, intestines and eardrums, and causing internal hemorrhage. More important than direct blast injuries in the Japanese bombings were the indirect effects. The latter were caused by collapsing buildings, flying timber and debris, and the like.

In Japan people received cuts and bruises a little more than two miles from the explosion center.

The Japanese explosions indicate that more or less serious skin burns would result if people were directly exposed to flash burn up to 10,000 feet, or just under two miles, from the explosion.

Flash rays travel in a straight line and so only direct exposure, in the open or through windows, would lead to trouble. Shelter behind almost any kind of object such as a tree or the wall of a house would be effective. Clothing, particularly that which is light in color, is a great protection.

An unusual feature of flash burns is that they are limited almost entirely to exposed parts of the body directly facing the center of the explosion.

Persons facing right angles to the explosion have suffered severe burns on the side nearest the blast and none on the other side. The hands of a man writing before a window were seriously burned. But his face and neck were not. They were farther back into the room and did not receive the direct rays.

Protection against gamma rays and neutrons is more difficult. But, as mentioned in the first article of this series, their lethal range is shorter than that of blast and flash—about 9000 feet for gamma rays and a half-mile for neutrons.

Shelters with concrete walls up to two feet thick are suggested as protection against gamma rays and neutrons. But of course such shelters are not always practicable. In addition, many of the persons close enough to the blast to be killed by nuclear radiation would also be killed by flash or blast effect.

Normally clothing will keep much radioactive material from the skin. A fair degree of decontamination of exposed parts can be arrived at by a good old soap and water scrubbing. Pay particular attention to hair, nails, skin folds and areas surrounding body openings. And be careful not to cause a break in the skin.

Cooley's Anemia

Dear Editor:

One reason for opposing the influx of Displaced Persons is the history of Cooley's anemia. This disease probably ravaged the ern East Mediterranean since the days of the Greek colonies in Sicily to the seaports of Sidon and Tyre.

It is curious that that group of people never, even in this century, discovered the disease. Much less did they suspect that it is hereditary. It was not until 1925 that a Detroit physician described it. He became intrigued by the number of immigrants of Eastern Mediterranean origin who suffered from it. Have we not here an example of the remarkable ability of American researchists? Is it not a group that is worth protesting? Researchists often have but 2 children. The East Mediterraneans frequently have 8 to 10.

Yours truly,
Edwin Grant.

Thoughts

Yet sometimes, when the secret cup
Of still and serious thought went round,
It seemed as if he drank it up,
He felt with spirit so profound.
—Wordsworth.

There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain thy spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.—Eccl. 8:8.

By CLINT DUNATHAN

FAIR ENOUGH—The big Upper Peninsula State Fair will open tomorrow in Escanaba.

Cows and queens and sheep and 4-H club boys and girls will be on parade; wheels will turn and barkers will shout along the midway decorated with fluttering pennants and startling pictures on the canvas fronted shows; and over in the exhibtiion building will be displayed everything from canned green beans to art treasures and the sword of General Lewis Cass, first governor of the Michigan territory.

In front of the grandstand the racing cars will whirl around the track, daily song and dance revues will be presented, queens will be crowned, 4-H club members will parade, Gov. Williams will speak, and fireworks will decorate the evening sky.

* * *

BACK OF IT ALL—The big fair is a big affair and requires considerable thought and preparation. And behind the whoopdedoo is a serious purpose and a group of serious men who recognize the fair as an important contribution to the agricultural prosperity of the U. P.

John MacInnis of Sault Ste. Marie, dairy and feed dealer, is chairman of the U. P. State Fair board. Other members are Walter Corey, Munising businessman; William Kell, stock dealer at Wilson (Menominee county); Victor F. Lemmer, Ironwood auditor; and R. E. Allingham, Escanaba, Chicago & North Western weighmaster.

And back of the board that is in back of the U. P. State Fair is Harold Lindsay of Escanaba, indefatigable in his enthusiasm as secretary—a position involving considerably more than writing a few letters.

There are a thousand and one details in connection with the fair that only the secretary and his staff can handle.

* * *

WHAT THEY LIKE—Essentially an agricultural fair dedicated to the promotion and development of agriculture in the Upper Peninsula, the fair also provides an opportunity for displays showing the industrial progress of the region.

Agriculture, industry, business — the economic backbone of the U. P. region— is combined in the fair with a program of entertainment and recreation.

There is increasing farmer participation in the fair, due in part to the wholehearted cooperation of Michigan State college extension service. The extension service knows that competition among the farmers at the fair is educational, whether in learning to judge good cattle, or how to make the farm a more satisfactory place to live.

But the farmer is no different than his city cousin in wanting entertainment at the fair, and that is the reason for the midway, the shows, the races, the contest of queens and other features.

* * *

TO THE FUTURE—The U. P. State Fair board has struck a successful note in its fair program, combining competition (from queens to horse pulling contests) and entertainment and education.

One of the fastest-growing departments at the fair is the 4-H club section, an encouraging sign that farm youth is more interested in a future on the farm than working as a day laborer in the city.

In the exhibition building the 4-H boys and girls represent the largest group sponsoring displays; over at the stock barns the 4-H dairy club members have expanded beyond the available space and a new 4-H club dairy barn is under construction; while dormitories and dining rooms help to make their week-long stay more pleasant and less costly.

* * *

FOR EVERYONE—There are more departments in the U. P. State Fair than in a country store.

You can exhibit anything from flowers, needlework and paintings to pigs, potatoes and chocolate layer cake. There will be displays of everything from cheese to cheesecake. Visiting dignitaries will go around in shirt sleeves, trying to look like farmers; and the farmers will be more interested in how their Guernsey herd made out in the cattle judging.

But most of all the U. P. State Fair is that unique combination of fact and fun and fancy that only a fair can provide.

Lonely House

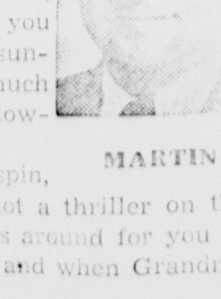
By Gordon Martin

When the house is very quiet and you wonder what is wrong, and you strain your ears expectantly to hear a cheery song, then it dawns on you just why you aren't hearing any noise, and the reason why you aren't stumbling over lots of toys. It's because there isn't any little girl around to play, for she's gone to visit Grandma and a week she plans to stay.



MARTIN

You confess you thought it might be nice a quiet life to lead, and to loll in tranquil comfort with a lot of stuff to read. And you didn't realize that Sister's absence you'd regret, and that for her sunny presence you'd be very quick to fret. So you think of how much happiness she brings you all the while, and the trusting love a-glowing in her bright and shining smile.

But she's gone and you are lonely with no cowboy yarns to spin, and no hectic games to play that always raise a youthful din; not a thriller on the radio, now silent as can be, and no color books she always brings around for you to see. Sure, it's bound to be a long old week while Sister is away, and when Grandma brings her back to you, 'twill be a joyful day.

Escanabans Enroll At Ferris Institute

BIG RAPIDS—Escanaba is to be represented this year in the large and snappy Ferris Institute Marching Band and chorus, it was revealed today by Nicholas Sabia, head of the music department. The band is expected to number well over 50 pieces.

Freshmen invited out for the band will be Harold W. Flath, 804 S. 13th street and Donald C. Kvam, 1122 3rd ave. South who have been accepted for admission into the Ferris Institute College of Pharmacy. Raymond P. Menard, 207 North 18th street, has been accepted for admission into the Colege of Commerce and was invited out for the chorus. They will come here for enrollment September 4 and 5 and classes will begin work September 6.

Flath and Kvam both played in the Escanaba high school band and Menard was in the high school chorus.

This will be the first year for Ferris as a state school and authorities today disclosed heavy inquiries for admission. Already the enrolment in the Colege of Pharmacy is filled to capacity but there are still a few places available in the College of Commerce both for degree courses and short courses in College Preparatory and in the five department of the Trades and Industry School.

A squad of 66 young men will report to Coach Robert Sherman on August 28 to start early season football training.

Pine Ridge 4-H Members Chosen, Compete At Fair

Seven members of the Pine Ridge 4-H club were selected late last week to represent Delta county, in competition with other U. P. counties, in a model business meeting contest at the U. P. State Fair.

Pine Ridge members who will take part are Dolores Anderson, Doris Borman, Alice and Barbara Herbst, Christine Matthews, Mary Schaut, Edith Sundquist and Joyce Winling.

County 4-H units demonstrated model meetings at the courthouse here Friday night and the Pine Ridge unit was rated best. Selection was made under auspices of Mel Nyquist, county 4-H agent, and Miss Ingrid Tervonen, home demonstration agent.

Negro Killer Dies In Marquette Prison As Judge Intended

MARQUETTE, Mich. (AP)—On Aug. 11, 1931, David Thomas Blackstone, Negro, and two white companions committed one of Michigan's most brutal crimes—the slaying of four teen-agers on a lonely road in Washtenaw county.

Blackstone, 53, died Thursday of a cerebral hemorrhage, one day short of the 19th anniversary of that quadruple slaying. It was the only way that sentencing Judge George W. Sample ever intended him to leave Marquette branch prison.

Judge Sample sentenced Blackstone and his two companions to four life terms—not to run concurrently—and wording of the sentence made it virtually impossible for any of the three ever to leave prison alive.

Fred Smith, now 42, and Frank Oliver, now 39, are the other two still paying for their brutal crime.

All three confessed that robbery was the motive for the attack on the two young couples, but Blackstone assaulted one of the girls. After the four were killed, the trio transported their bodies several miles in a car and then set fire to the car and the bodies.

The crime aroused residents of Ypsilanti, where they were arrested, and Ann Arbor, where they appeared in court, and law officers were forced to use tear gas to prevent angry demonstrators from seizing the trio.

Draft Boards Are Again Exempting Big Athletes

By ROBERT C. RUARK

NEW YORK—They threw out the first baseball player t'other day—the draft did, I mean—on "a history of asthma," and if asthma's here the punctured eardrum and flat foot cannot be far behind.

RUARK

We see where Mr. Ralph Branca of the Dodgers has been disdained by his local board because of a tendency to wheeze with the bases loaded, and I imagine the old pattern now be-begins to repeat itself. For two wars we have seen action by draft boards in which men of large muscle have been granted deferment because of minor technical defects. This left them free to hit home runs and dash up and down football fields, as in the case of the famous Georgia university athlete, Frank Sinkwich, whose feet were too flat for the Marines but were amply capable of ripping off hundred-yard sorties through a broken field.

Toll For All

As I understand a draft act, when the bell tolls for one it is supposed to toll for all, and I have never understood how an athlete's flaccid arches or acute astigmatism could keep him from at least limited duty if he were healthy enough to pitch nine innings or stretch a double into a triple. The slumped foot and the ventilated eardrum were a standing joke in the last mess, while we recruited women to replace men for the fighting fronts of the playing fields.

A man with enough stamina to perform major league football or baseball, who can fight professionally in a prize ring, is surely the physical superior of the average Wac or Wave, and there is a job for him to do if it is only one of calisthenic education for young men who will shortly wield a gun.

As one may suspect, not all men who find themselves conscripted rush immediately to the front, to flourish a bazooka or throttle the enemy with bare hands. A few million guys in the last one were employed as clerks on local soil and to strive in the PX's and supply offices and administrative labor pools of the rear echelons. Many a wishful warrior never got emancipated from Washington or Texas or North Carolina.

We have been fiddling around with this draft business for a long time, and have misused it rather shamefully in the past. Men were jiggled in and out of classifications until they never knew from one minute to the next whether they were candidates for civilian or military distinction. The local boards largely made up their own rules, with four-eyed counter-jumpers suddenly rating a 1-A and barrel-chested weight lifters snuggling up to 4-F.

He's 1-A Now

The arbitrary action of physical examiners has been as flexible as a strip-teaser's hips. I know one young man, now 1-A, who was rejected by the draft for bad eyes in the last war, and who tried unsuccessfully to volunteer for Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard and the Red Cross. The eyes are no better today, which is to say he couldn't tell the difference between Betty Grable and a bale of hay at 10 feet. But he is 1-A in his 25th year.

I believe that global toad, Serge Rubenstein, received 14 deferments, which lasted him out of the war, and he paid only slightly for his falsifications with a stretch in Lewisburg prison afterwards. I know that a variety of entertainers used the small physical technicality to go loose from a private's suit.

Yet I know several men who served a full war, with distinction, while in possession of ailments that would have prevented them from climbing two flights of stairs in a hurry.

It is easy to approve of the most rigid physical examinations for men who are being shaped for actual combat, but a rear-echelon Joe who is little more than a torso can still do a job in the administrative end, asthma or no asthma, flat feet or no flat fleet.

Which returns me to my original premise: any man healthy enough to make his living in major sports as an active participant is healthy enough to work for Uncle Sam if others of his age group get the call.

Guardsmen Now At Grayling

Join More Than 8,000 Troops In Camp

Manistique was the focal point of concentration of about 300 national guardsmen who spent Friday night in Manistique before embarking, via motor convoy for Camp Grayling for two weeks of intensive field training.

Fourth postwar encampment of the Michigan National Guard, this year's field training will mark the greatest concentration of men and equipment ever to rendezvous at the guard's traditional training grounds.

The caravan of trucks, which left at dawn Saturday morning presented an impressive sight. Besides the truckloads of uniformed men, there were in the line of entourage many tanks, trucks, guns and other mysterious equipment, said to represent the last word in armament.

A parade of the massed strength of the 46th Infantry Division on Saturday afternoon, August 19, will top the list of events scheduled for the mid-week-end of the 1950 encampment. More than 8,000 troops with their battle weapons will pass in traditional review before their Commander-in-Chief, Governor G. Mennen Williams, and Major General Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general. Hundreds of relatives and friends are expected to be on hand that afternoon to witness the colorful events of the day.

Governor Williams will be honored at a reception to be given the same evening. He is also scheduled to give the principal address at the Division Memorial Services on Sunday morning.

With their mission as an M-Day force accentuated by the Korean war, local Guardsmen will concentrate on intensive training with their weapons and on carrying out small unit problems. Troops will spend two nights in the field sleeping in their pup tents and eating combat rations. The local unit is scheduled to return to is home armory August 26, at 8 p. m.

Model Of Big Spring To Be Shown At Fair

Kitch-iti-ki-pi, one of Upper Michigan's premier natural attractions, will again be shown in miniature at the Upper Peninsula State Fair at Escanaba next week.

To John I. Bellaiire, who for many years past, produced this attraction, has fallen the task of building it again.

Mr. Bellaire, more than anyone else, has acquainted the traveling public with this beautiful natural wonder and it is only natural that he should be assigned this duty. He has reproduced the model to scale—even as to its depth. Even the sand geysers will be there to simulate the real thing.

John I. as he is familiarly known, will be on hand to tell all who may inquire, as to the statistics and the wealth of Indian lore of which he is an inexhaustible source of information.

Famed Four Man Softball Team Plays Here Tonight

Memorial field, scene of one of the largest crowds in the history of softball last night at the finals of the district tournament, will be packed again tonight.

The occasion will be the appearance in Escanaba of the sensational King and His Court, four man softball team, which will meet Harnischfeger Red Sox at 8:15.

Feature of the King and his court is the pitching of "King" Eddie Feigner, who pitches blindfolded, between his legs, behind his back, on his knees and from every other conceivable position. He has beaten almost every powerful team in the Upper Peninsula on the current trip.

In the preliminary, the Hughes Motors will meet the Liberty Loans.

Paper Mills Win

The tournament finale Sunday found these champions crowned: Escanaba Paper Mills in Class A, Hughes Motors in Class B and Clairmont Transfers in Class C.

The Paper Mill victory was another personal triumph for the veteran pitcher, Tom Elegreet. Early in the tourney, he upset the Harnischfeger Red Sox with his fine pitching and good hitting. Last night Elegreet allowed the Red Sox only two hits and got two of the Paper Mills six hits himself, as the Paper Mills won, 1-0. His battery mate, Dave Larson scored the only run of the game in the fourth inning.

Errors were the margin of victory in the class B finale as Hughes Motors defeated Larrys of Gladstone, 10-3. Both teams made 10 hits but Gladstone blew up in the sixth to allow eight runs to score. Gladstone made five errors in the game. Ray Oseen, Hughes shortstop, lit the fire in the sixth as he hit an inside-the-park home run. R. Mackie, Gladstone pitcher, hit one over the fence for his team. Jim Fitzpatrick was the winning pitcher.

Four Hitter

John Baker pitched four hit ball as the Clairmont Transfers upset Steam Laundry, 10-1. Bill Benard and John Cousineau on the mound for the Laundry allowed only seven hits but they walked several and their team made five errors.

In the class A semi-finals, the Paper Mills defeated White Birch, 6-4, and Red Sox defeated the same team, 6-2. In class B semi-finals, Larrys defeated the Escanaba Merchants, 9-1, behind the one-hit pitching of Wally Lake. Hughes eliminated Nuway Cleaners, 7-4.

In class C semi-finals, the Steam Laundry defeated Maple Rover, 5-2 and Clairmonts trimmed U. P. Power and Light in eight innings.

Barks Wallop Felch By 19-0

FELCH—It was a massacre here Sunday as Bark River continued its winning ways in Tri-county league competition, crushing Felch, 19-0.

Ray Menard, Bark River pitcher, tossed a neat two-hitter while his mates were pounding out 19 hits. George LeBrasseur set the pace with a home run in the first inning with Wally Flath on base.

The Bark River attack was heaviest in the sixth with five runs and in the eighth with six runs.

Felch made 11 errors in the game.

Gibson struck out 14 batters. Dusty Malnor of Rapid River got a home run in the second inning.

Packers Trounced By Browns, 38 to 7

TOLEDO, O.,—(AP)—Otto Graham passed to three touchdowns as the Cleveland Browns beat the Green Bay Packers, 38 to 7, in a professional football exhibition game Saturday night.

Spilling The Dope

By Charlie Larson

Rumors are funny things.

How, where and why they start are always interesting.

For instance, the other day we heard a rumor that the new concrete stadium at the high school athletic field would never stand up.

According to the story, a man who knows concrete construction looked at the pillars and found evidences of honeycombing.

Said he, this is inferior work. It will never stand up.

And so the story got started.

* * * * *

We decided to do a little investigating.

The concrete used in the construction of the stadium is tested for the board of education by J. E. Brehler, materials engineer of the state highway department.

Brehler goes out at odd times, unannounced, to take samples of the concrete. Then he tests it according to state highway department standards.

We asked Brehler what he found and whether he thought there was anything wrong.

"The concrete certainly passes the rigid tests for bridges and highways as set up by the state highway department," said Brehler.

"If that concrete doesn't hold up, a lot of concrete in Escanaba won't hold up because it is made by the Escanaba Concrete corporation. And I've never heard any criticism of its product.

* * * * *

"Honeycoming? Sure, I noticed a spot here and there. But there is nothing unusual about that. It happens in spots in almost any concrete job poured.

"But the little honeycombing I've been able to find certainly would have no serious effect upon the strength of the structure.

Brehler's reports of his tests are on file at the state highway department and school superintendent's office for all to see.

* * * * *

The board of education has gone out of its way to be certain that the structure is sound.

The board asked its consulting architects, Perkins and Will of Chicago, to check the construction.

The architects sent in their structural engineers who made a thorough study of plans and specifications. They recommended a few minor changes, which have been made.

If anyone carries the rumor to you that there's something wrong with the stadium, ask him this question:

"Is the board of education interested in building a stadium that won't stand up?"

Swanson Lauds Miller, New U.P. Golf Champion

As far as Elmer Swanson is concerned, J. D. Miller of St. Ignace has every right to the U. P. golf title he won Sunday by defeating Les Waugh of Soo Ont., one up.

"Miller is one of the finest golfers I have ever faced," said Swanson, who was defeated by Miller, on the 18th hole Saturday afternoon in the semi-finals. Swanson was the only Escanaban left in the tournament at that time.

"He isn't a long ball hitter but he is deadly on anything within 160 yards. He missed only one putt of 10 feet or less the whole four days and his approach shots were something to see. I played the best golf of my career but I was beaten by a top man."

Escanaba got one runner up—H. E. Johnson lost in the finals to Charles J. Duncan of Soo, Ont., in the senior division.

Ashland, Wis., member of the U. P. Golf association, was awarded the 1951 tournament.

Miller's final opponent, Waugh, entered the championship by defeating Phil Colasanti of the Soo, four up.

Miller, a former Detroiter, had a 75 for the final 18 holes to Waugh's 76.

The two were tied when Miller missed a three-foot putt on the 17th hole. Miller then finished the match on the 18th.

Miller takes the title won last year by Tom Messinger of Houghton. Messinger also took the 1941 crown.

Cubs Capture 10th League Tilt In Row

The Escanaba Cubs wrote a fine finish to a swell season here Sunday when they made the most of two hits to defeat Bark River juniors, 4-2.

It was their tenth Waubung league victory in a row without a defeat. It also was their last game of the season, giving them two complete league schedules without a defeat. In the process, they won the Upper Peninsula junior baseball title. Their only defeats this year were by the local Bears and by Flint and Detroit in the state meet at Kalamazoo.

Jack Chriske pitched the Cubs to the win yesterday, allowing Bark River three hits and striking out 10. Dale Erickson of Bark River allowed only two hits — singles by Pete Kutches and Dick Whitney—but his seven walks contributed heavily to his defeat.

Giants' Ahearn Hurls 2-0 Win Over Phils

(By The Associated Press)

James T. Hearn, an unheralded righthander from Atlanta, Ga., pitched the Giants to a 2-0 decision over the Philadelphia Phils yesterday.

He allowed the hard-hitting Phils only four hits, walked one and struck out three. Ken Johnson was the loser.

The victory gave the Giants an even break in their four-game series with the pacemakers, and a record of 19 wins in their last 23 games.

Despite the loss, the Phils remained five games in front of the second place Boston Braves, who took and 8-2 cuffing from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Cincinnati Reds dropped the Cubs into fourth place as Lefty Ken Raffensberger whipped them, 3-2. The Reds helped themselves to sixth place with assistance from the Pittsburgh Pirates who swept both ends of a doubleheader from the Cubs, 7-4 and 2-0.

The front-running Detroit Tigers saw their hold on first place become a bit more secure as the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox lost while the Cleveland Indians divided a doubleheader.

A four-hit batting performance by outfielder Paul Lehner and a four-hit pitching effort by southpaw Lou Brissie enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to vanquish the Yankees, 5-2. Vic Raschi was the loser.

Rookie Al Sima, with the help of reliefer Mickey Harris in the eighth, pitched the Washington Senators to a 6-5 victory over the Red Sox. Third baseman Eddie Yost drove in a pair of runs with a single and double and scored twice for the victors.

Sparked by Manager Lou Boudreau's pinch single and Larry Doby's two-run triple, the Indians came from behind to win the opener, 5-2, with a five-run eighth inning. The White Sox tapped starter Dick Weik for five runs in the first inning to win the second game, 7-5. Catcher Gus Niarhos' double with the bases loaded cleared the sacks. Ray Scarborough was the winner. Bob Feller won his 11th for the Tribe in the opener.

Fayette Trips Cornell By 16-4

CORNELL — Fayette swamped Cornell, 16-4, Sunday in a Bay de Noc league game here.

The line score:

Oklahoma, Detroit And Tulsa Favored

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—Oklahoma of the Big Seven and Detroit and Tulsa of the Missouri valley conference are favored to dominate football in the Midlands this fall.

Coaches of the two conferences named their favorite at a meeting here yesterday held in connection with clinics of publicity men of the schools and the Midwestern Officials association. The vote was by secret ballot.

Bears Entertain Barks Tonight

When the Escanaba Bears entertain their arch rivals, Bark River, at city diamond tonight at 6:30, they hope the rivalry will spur them into making some runs.

The Bears were shut out yesterday, 8-0, by Chatham in a Rainbow league game and it was the third game in a row in which the local boys have failed to score.

South Range and Trenary blanked them previously.

But the Bears, banking on their previous performances, are confident they'll break out with plenty of scoring tonight.

Benefit For Cubs

Tonight's game—another in the interesting series between the two teams—is a benefit game, the proceeds going to the Escanaba Cubs to help defray expenses of their trip to the state tournament.

The Bears probably will toss Russ Hiltonen at Bark River tonight while Bark River undoubtedly will use Ben Kleiman, since Ray Menard pitched a full game yesterday against Perronville.

N. Salminen, Chatham pitcher, allowed the Bears only three hits —a double by Centerfielder Charlie Olson in the first inning, a single by Rightfielder Bob Dufour in the fourth and another single by Howard Bourdeau, who replaced Olson, in the seventh.

Chatham laced two consecutive doubles off Starter Joe Rademacher in the first inning, scoring two runs in that frame. In the second, they put together a double, two walks, a fielders' choice for two more runs.

Hiltonen whiffs Six

They capped their scoring with four runs in the fourth, highlighted by a triple with the bases loaded by Johnny Brisson.

Jack Beck relieved Rademacher and, after Brisson had scored, Chatham's scoring.

Russ Hiltonen pitched the last two innings and struck out five of the six batters to face him.

Redskins Shut Out Groos, 6-0

GLADSTONE — The Gladstone Redskins shut out the hapless Groos team, 6-0, in a Rainbow league game here Sunday that wasn't much of a contest.

Fred Boddy, former Escanaba Cub pitcher, hurled for Groos and allowed only five hits but he was wild and it cost him runs.

In the first inning, Gladstone scored four runs on a single to Neil Sinclair, walk to Lefty Lake, sacrifice by Larry LaPlant, walk to Bernie Olson, double by Bobby Bizeau and a single by Lloyd Forvilly. Dick Sidbeck also singled but it didn't figure in the scoring.

Alden Haglund, Gladstone pitcher, allowed only five hits and struck out 11 batters. Boddy struck out nine.

South Tips North On Blocked Punt

NEGAUNEE —(AP)— A blocked punt in the third quarter resulted in the only score here Saturday night as the South shut out the North, 6-0, before 5,000 persons in the fifth annual Upper Peninsula all-star football contest.

James Devine, of Norway blocked Jack Armstrong's end-zone punt late in the quarter and fell on the ball for the touchdown.

The north, which has bowed to its southern foes three years in a row, dominated play through most of the game and had two touchdowns called back by penalties. The north lost another scoring chance when a back fumbled on the goal line.

Jahn Stars As Manistique Trips Trenary To Capture League Lead

Young Hurler Allows 3 Hits And Wins, 4-3

MANISTIQUE—Young Norm Jahn was the toast of Manistique today.

He allowed the league leading Trenary team only three hits in 11 innings yesterday and defeated them, 4-3, to throw Manistique into a first place tie in the Southern division.

On top of his pitching performance—he struck out 15 Trenary batters—Jahn smashed out two doubles and drove in two of Manistique's four runs.

The locals squeezed home a run in the eleventh inning to win after they had tied it up with a two-run burst in the seventh. Trenary's three runs came in the third inning.

Ross, Manistique's leadoff man, got four hits in five trips to the plate, including two doubles.

Russ Druckenmiller, Trenary hurler, allowed 12 hits but was effective with men on bases. He struck out 10 and left 10 Manistique runners stranded.

Burkemo Cops Michigan Open

ADRIAN — (AP) — Stocky, 31-year-old Walt Burkemo of Detroit, who turned pro only five years ago, is Michigan's 1950 open golf champion.

The 170-pound Franklin Hills pro snagged the crown by shooting a brilliant eight-under-par 64 on his final 18 holes yesterday. It gave him a 269 total for the 72-hole tournament.

Burkemo's nearest rival was another Detroiter, Max Evans. A Sunnybrook pro, Evans was five strokes off the pace with a 274 score.

John Barnum, Grand Rapids pro, was third with 275.

Al Watrous, 51-year-old grandfather and defending champion from Detroit, took the lead at the halfway mark with a 136 total but wound up in fourth place with a 276 total. Watrous was after his seventh title.

Going into the final 36 holes of play yesterday, Burkemo found himself four strokes behind Watrous, his one-time teacher and boss.

Burkemo came back and tore the 6,230-yard Lenawee country club course apart to cop the title.

Jake Fassezke of Adrian topped all amateurs in the tourney by carding a 280 score. Big Jake, who copped the open crown as a professional in 1934 and 1935, finished three strokes lower than his closest amateur rival, Tom Kuzma of Jackson.

If Phils Win, There Will Be Disappointment

PHILADELPHIA — (AP)— Baseball fans will find it tough to locate hotel rooms in Philadelphia in October if the Phillies win the National league pennant.

At the exact time the world series would be underway here (if the Phils win, that is) the Master Brewers Association of America will be holding its annual four-date convention. The Brewers put in reservations for 4,000 hotel rooms.

Some hotelmen already have turned down application for hotel rooms on Oct. 3, the date the series will open—in the National league city.

"We are completely sold out," said Bennett Tousley, general manager of the Bellevue-Strafford hotel.

GOLF MEET OPENS

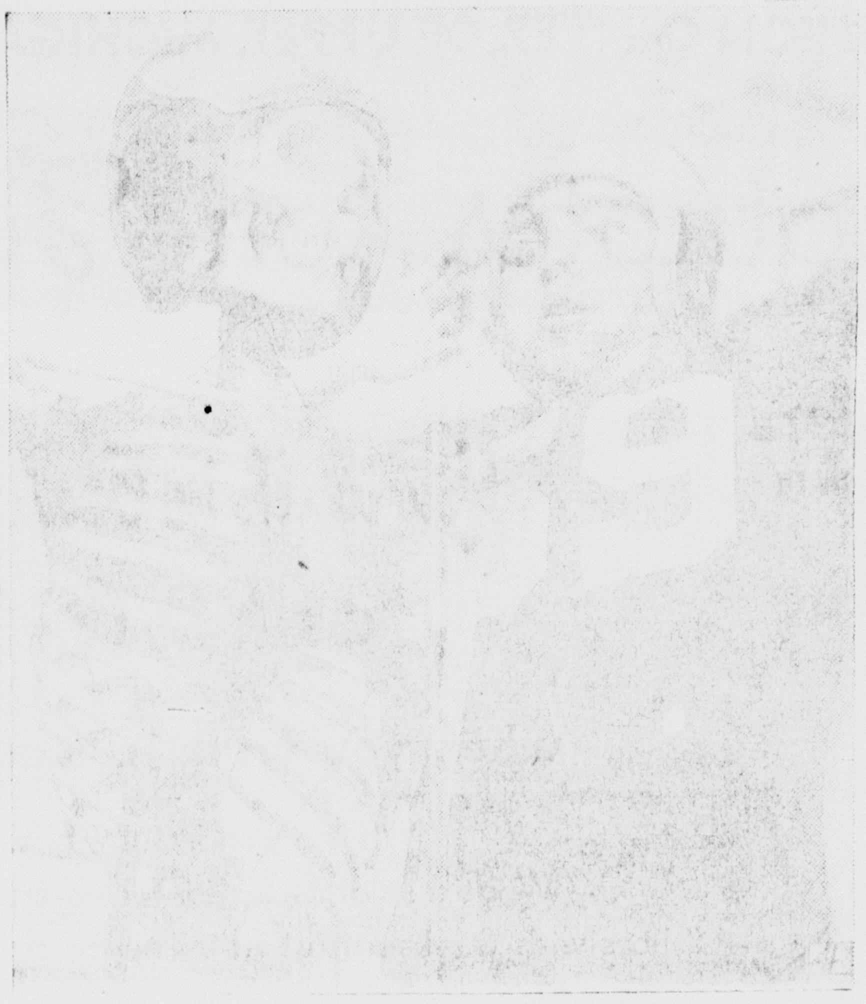
AMES, Iowa—(AP)—The fifth annual junior golf tournament sponsored by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce opened today on the Iowa State college course. Many of the country's top "amateur stars of tomorrow" were among the 200 players on hand for the first 18-holes of the qualifying test.



MICHIGAN FOOTBALL—MOSCOW VERSION—Radio Moscow said that football players in Ann Arbor kill each other so often that "gridders are carried straight to the cemetery." Dick McWilliams, 250-pound Michigan tackle from Cleveland, views skeleton in football training room at Ann Arbor in mock horror as he contemplates fate of University of Michigan gridders in season just ahead.

Manager Of Ike Williams Sought In Racket Shooting

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— Frank (Blinky) Palermo, manager of lightweight boxing champion Ike Williams, was the target of a police manhunt today.

Palermo was sought to answer charges of conspiracy, violation of the firearms law and of threat to kill. Police officials said Palermo may be involved in a battle between numbers racketeers.

Inspector Richard Doyle dispatched a police flier calling for Palermo's arrest yesterday after two men were held in $10,000 bail each as the aftermath of a gun battle in South Philadelphia.

Sought along with Palermo are James Singleton, 42, described by Doyle as the fight manager's partner in one of the city's largest numbers banks, and Joseph Coffee, 45, said to be the ring's "strong arm man."

Palermo and his two companions disappeared following an exchange of pistol shots between two speeding sedans late Saturday afternoon, Doyle said.

Already held by police are Nicholas Marcus, 22, of Upper Darby, Pa., and Patsy Mangiello, 35 of Philadelphia. Palermo, Singleton and Coffee also are Philadelphians.

Doyle accused Marcus and Mangiello of being numbers writers for what he termed the Palermo-Singleton bank. The inspector said they allegedly were the targets for bullets fired from Palermo's automobile. No one was injured in the exchange of shots.

Magistrate Paul D'Ortana, setting bail at $10,000 each for Marcus and Mangiello, ordered both men held for further hearing Friday at the request of Detective Sgt. George J. Kronbar.

Kronbar said he asked the postponement because Palermo, Singleton and Coffee either would be arrested or would surrender to police by that time.

Marcus and Mangiello are charged with violation of the uniform firearms act, reckless use of firearms, attempt to kill, conspiracy and keeping and maintaining an illegal lottery.

Doyle said the trouble started over a welshed 75-cent numbers bet that should have paid the bettor $350.

Detroit Idle; Gains On Foes

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Sunday was a day of rest for the American league-leading Detroit Tigers but it also was one of profit.

The Tigers' twin bill with St. Louis Browns at St. Louis was washed out. But the New York Yankees fell to the Philadelphia Athletics, the Boston Red Sox bowed to Washington and the Cleveland Indians split with Chicago.

Defeats hurt a team more at this point of the race, so the Tigers profited all the way around, even though the Yankees and Indians each remained three and a half games behind.

Incidentally, the rain that washed out Detroit's final three games in St. Louis posed a problem for William Harridge, American league president.

Manager Red Rolfe of Detroit is going to ask Harridge if and when the Tigers can play the three postponed games with the Browns in Detroit. The Tigers have made their last trip this year to St. Louis.

The two-day rest created by the elements gave the Detroit pitching staff a much-needed rest. The Tigers open an important two-game series with the Indians here tonight and Rolfe finds his mound staff ready, thanks to the layoff.

It will be Hal Newhouser for the Tigers tonight and either Art Houtteman or Hal White tomorrow. Early Wynn, a 12-5 performer so far this year, will hurl the opener for the Tribe.

WALL TO COMPETE

CHICAGO — (AP) — Headed by fresh "world" amateur champion Dot Kielty and defending champion Helen Sigel, a record field of 219 lassies from 23 states today begins the 50th women's western golf association amateur tourney. Miss Kielty, from Long Beach, Calif., yesterday won Tam O'Shanter's "world" title with a 72-hole count of 315. Among the formidable entries is Mary Agnes Wall, Menominee, Mich.

Harbert And Ransom Meet In Tam Final

CHICAGO—(AP)—Chick Harbert of Northville, and Hank Ransom of Dallas, Texas, match skill in a golf playoff today for about $83 per shot.

Tam O'Shanter's "world" championship is at stake a title strictly incidental to the $11,000 first prize, highest in golf history, and $5,000 for second.

The difference between the awards is $6,000, and a calculating machine will show you that the boys will be shooting at $83.33 per shot on a par 72 route.

Harbert, the hard-hitting former boy wonder who now is 35 has been hot and cold of recent years. Yesterday, while 20,000 customers flocked to the scene, he closed with a fabulous 34-34—68 to tie Ransom at 281, seven under par.

The "world" women's pro crown rested on the head of Babe Zaharias with 293—11 under par.

Frank Stranahan added the "world" men's amateur title to his team All-American diadem with 289.

Charles Meets Beshore Tuesday

BUFFALO, N. Y.—(AP)—When Ezzard Charles defends his NBA heavyweight title against Freddie Beshore tomorrow night the shadow of Joe Louis will be over the ring.

The Negro champion from Cincinnati has everything to lose and little to gain by a victory over the blond Harrisburg, Pa., challenger. Upon the outcome depends a $500,000 September Louis-Charles bout.

Charles enters the ring a 1-5 favorite over the comparatively unknown Beshore, but can't take any chances.

He doesn't intend to, either.

"I'm not taking Beshore cheap," said Charles.

"As a matter of fact, I never take it easy in any fight. It'll go 'til one of us gets in the way. I don't go in with the intent to knockout. If the guy gets in the way, well—. I always fight to win as quick as I can."

Jenkins Is Named U. P. Commander Of State Troops

LANSING—(AP)—Commanding officers for two of the four districts to be organized under the proposed new state guard were appointed by Governor Williams today.

The state guard would replace the National Guard "when the latter is called to active duty," Williams said.

Col. Des Rosier is a retired National Guard officer who accepted the surrender of Gen. Yamashita of the Japanese army in World War II and is employed by the Detroit city engineer.

Col. Jenkins is the Escanaba city engineer. He commanded the 254th Engineers in World War II and helped to plan and execute the D-Day crossing of the English channel.

civil defense office, and 30,000 for organizational planning of the state guard to replace the National Guard if it is called to war duty.

There is a possibility that the governor may ask for a clarification of appropriations to the National Guard so that any money left behind when and if the National Guard is called up can be used for activating the state guard.

The defense council took no action on an estimate that $1,332,000 would be needed to finance a "living blood bank" up to June 30, 1951.

The estimate was made by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, who eventually to blood type everyone in Michigan to constitute the entire population as the "living blood bank."

The program calls also for training personnel to do the typing, recruiting 10 blood collecting teams to send in 4,000 samples a day, an addition to the state health laboratory, and stockpiling of blood plasma.

The governor made it plain he intends to ask the legislature to approve an appropriation near the amount suggested by Dr. Heutis.

The subversion amendment will be proposed by the Senate loyalty committee. The amendment would define subversion as "any act or advocacy of any act intended to overthrow the form of government of this state" as set up by the state and federal constitutions "by force or violence or by any means not authorized and provided by this constitution and the laws x x x."

The amendment would also provide that subversion shall constitute an abuse of the immunity" granted by the free speech and press section of the state constitution.

To Ease Registrations

"The immunity granted thereby shall not be valid as a defense in any trial for subversion," the proposal reads.

The governor has announced he will ask the legislature to permit registration for voting of servicemen by mail instead of requiring all registrants to appear in person. He will also seek an extension of the 30-day limitation on applications for absentee ballots by servicemen.

New state laws to conform with new federal Social Security laws are necessary, because the present state statutes forbid participation with the federal government in any programs not specifically named.

The new federal laws will take over the county share of the burden of caring for the totally and permanently disabled and for hospital care of the aged. If the state is to participate, its laws must be amended to permit it.

The governor has also indicated he may ask the legislature to increase the state budgets for aid to dependent children, and to the blind, and old age assistance to conform to increased Social Security benefits and to take advantage of greater assistance from the federal government.

Free Chest X-ray Offered At Fair

The Michigan department of health will have its mobile chest x-ray unit at the U. P. State Fair again this year, offering free x-rays to every person over 15 years of age, it was announced today by R. L. Johnson, in charge of the health department's Northern Peninsula office at Escanaba.

Free chest x-rays are part of the tuberculosis case-finding program of the Michigan department of health.

The x-ray unit will be located on the west side of the exhibition building from Tuesday through Saturday, and will be open from 1 to 5 o'clock, and 6 to 9 o'clock every afternoon and evening. The unit will not operate on Sunday, Aug. 20.

people in the dark about the gravity" of the world situation.

Martin accused the administration of a tendency to play politics with the nation's security, and asked:

"Can we wait until after the November elections to tell the people of America the real truth? Can we place votes first?"

Mr. Truman has said that if Congress gives him wage-price-rationing powers, he would like to have a free hand to invoke them. But he says he sees no need for those controls now.

The president also has said he did not ask for such authority because he did not want to touch off a controversy in Congress which would delay action on the other controls powers he wants quickly.

Those other powers would let the president allocate scarce industrial materials, require priority attention to defense contracts, take over privately owned plants when necessary, and control credit.

The Senate resumes debate on its bill today, with the major point at issue an amendment by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) which would reserve to Congress the right to say whether and when wage-price- rationing controls should go into effect. The bill would give Mr. Truman that right.

Several Republican senators already have come out against the Taft plan. Administration leaders have predicted it will be defeated and that the bill will be approved overwhelmingly with only minor amendments.

Present prospects are there will be no voting on amendments or the bill itself before Friday.

A call for immediate controls on prices—as a military necessity—came over the weekend from Senator Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.).

The Texan said such action must be taken because price increases for military goods during the last six weeks "have reduced the purchasing power of our defense dollars by as much as 50 per cent in some cases.

Paving Petitions For Next Year Will Be Accepted Now

Escanaba property owners who want streets in front of their property paved next summer are asked to begin submitting their petitions for the work now.

Several blocks in the city will be paved with blacktop material this summer but not all paving petitioned for will be completed this year, A. V. Aronson, city manager states.

Street paving costs property owners $3 per front foot. Alley paving in the residential area, which also may be petitioned for, will cost each property owner $2.25 for each foot of property adjacent to the alley.

City crews now are paving Fourth avenue south and have nearly completed three blocks of the stretch from 11th street to 14th street. Alley paving south of Ludingon street, in the block between South 12th and 13th streets, was completed last Friday and crews now are paving the alley in the 1000 block south of Ludington street. By the end of this week, if weather permits, work on the alley in the 600 block south of Ludington will be underway.

Alleys in the business and industrial areas will be paved to a width of 17 feet and alleys in residential areas will get a 12-foot pavement, when petitioned for.
